

I Don't Think So

Did the world fall apart when I held your hand
Told you we're not a one-night stand
I don't think so, I don't think so
When your father said I'm not the one
'Cos I've been around more than some
I don't think so, I don't think so

Your friends all said it wouldn't last
It will all be over fast
But I'm still sitting here by your side

Did I sweet talk you then move along
To another lover and do you wrong
I don't think so, I don't think so
Did I lie to you right from the start
When I promised not to break your heart
I don't think so, I don't think so

Some might think that you were blind
Hoped that you would change your mind
But I'm still sitting here by your side

Together we proved them wrong
Can't believe we still get along
Don't think so, no they don't think so
Do I care if they put me down
At the girls night out in the bar up town
I don't think so, I don't think so

Your friends still think that it won't last
A big mistake from your past
But I'm still sitting here by your side

Some might say I rode my luck
That I might still come unstuck
But I believe they'll be waiting a long, long time
I don't think so, I don't think so

I don't think so
