

You Can Call Me Out

if you think that I won't wait for you
You can call me out
When you think I move too fast for you
You can call me out
You can tell me anything 'cos everything you say is true
That's how it goes for the man who knows
He'll keep on loving you

When you say I act too tough
You can calm me down
When you say that you've heard enough
I won't make a sound
I know sometimes I talk too much, I never know when to stop
That's how it is, I live and breath
To keep on loving you

There is nothing I'd rather do than to be with you
Strange feelings taking hold, something that I never knew

If I'm watching too much sport
You can call time out
You'd rather swim at a beach resort
There can be no doubt
I admit it's strange for me and old habits die so hard
But I'm trying as I live and breath
I've loved you from the start

There is nowhere that I'd rather be than with you right here
These feelings taking hold, never knew that I could care – so much

When you think it should be me and you
I will understand
If you don't think I support you too
You can hold my hand
If I ever drink too much and stay out late with the guys
Just remind me when I get home
You're my reason why

You are all I'll ever need
I'll keep on loving you
I'm so happy just to live and breath
And keep on loving you
